Art Unit: 1763

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-4, 7 and 9-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Goodman (2002/0043337) for the reasons stated in the previous office action.

Claims 5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Goodman taken in view of Nulman (5,098,198) for the reasons stated in the previous office action.

Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Goodman taken in view of deBoer (5,427,620) for the reasons stated in the previous office action.

Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Goodman for the reasons stated in the previous office action.

Applicants have argued that Goodman (2002/0043337) does not qualify as prior art because the effective date of Goodman is later than the priority date of the present application, which is October 19, 1998. Applicants have also submitted a certified translation of their foreign priority document to perfect their foreign priority claim. It is noted, however, that Goodman claims the priority benefit under 35 U.S.C. 119(e) from provisional Application No. 60/064,016, filed November 3, 1997 (see paragraph [001] of Goodman). Therefore, the effective filing date of Goodman (2002/0043337) is November 3, 1997, and Goodman does qualify as prior art in the present application.

The rejections based on Perlov have been removed in view of the amendment to claim 14, lines 16-17 which added the limitation of "wherein said susceptor is supported only by said protrusions provided on said distal end of each of said arms". It is noted that the design of Perlov requires a central support for the susceptor (centering pin 54) which is excluded by claim 14 as amended.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
